

In a world of darkness, the Gods decided to create the Sun and the Moon

But the Sun and the Moon didn't have movement!

So they decided to sacrifice themselves which would give movement to the Sun and the Moon and create the day under night.

Ehecatl the God of the Wind, began the task of sacrificing the Gods.

Xolotl, the twin brother of Quetzalcoatl, refused to sacrifice his life and ran away.

In the cornfield, he was transformed into the double stand corn.
but Etecatl found him and he flew away.

then, he hid among the cactuses and he transformed into an Agave Plant.

But Ehecatl discovered him again, and once again he fled away.

Xolotl saw a lake and he dive into the water and turn into the Axolotl.

But no ones is escapes from its destiny!!
